

CLOCHE

Historical Archive, 1995

Cloche is the makeover of Pudding, the hanging lamp from the FontanaArte Historic Archive designed in 1995. It comes in a range of soft, contemporary colors. When this latter version is switched on, the light creates a magical effect that enhances the design of the diffuser.

Suspension lamp with direct and dimmable light. Diffuser made of painted plastic polymer. Black power cable. Ceiling rose made of black painted polycarbonate. Bulb not included.
